CALL FOR PAPERS

12TH INTERNATIONAL NORDWEL SUMMER SCHOOL CROSS-DISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON WELFARE STATE DEVELOPMENT

LUND UNIVERSITY, 24–28 AUGUST 2020

The summer school is a joint venture of the Faculty of Social Sciences at Lund University, Collaborative Research Center (CRC) "Global Dynamics of Social Policy", University of Bremen, the Danish Centre of Welfare Studies (University of Southern Denmark), and the Faculty of Social Sciences at University of Helsinki.

The aim of the Nordwel summer school is to stimulate discussion across disciplines and to foster innovative cross-disciplinary research on the development of welfare states over time and in a global context. The summer school brings together PhD students and established international scholars in scholarly exchange.

We invite PhD students from different disciplinary backgrounds to participate in discussions on the development of welfare states, their preconditions, present status, and how we ought to study them. PhD students present their papers in parallel sessions and get feedback from both senior scholars and junior colleagues.

Teachers include Daniel Béland (McGill University), Ann-Zofie Duvander (Stockholm University), Jane Gingrich (University of Oxford), Pauli Kettunen (University of Helsinki), Johannes Lindvall (Lund University), Åsa Lundqvist (Lund University), Pirjo Markkola (Tampere University), Herbert Obinger (University of Bremen), Klaus Petersen (University of Southern Denmark), and Axel West Pedersen (Oslo Metropolitan University). More teachers will be announced soon.

We welcome applications by PhD students by 31 March 2020. The approved proposals will be selected on the basis of their quality. Papers can be written from a broad historical or contemporary perspective and come from different disciplines such as history, social policy, sociology, political science, and political philosophy. Guidelines for papers will be sent in connection with the letters of approval by 30 April 2020. Participants who complete the summer school successfully are credited with 5 ECTS credits.

The course fee is 300 euros. Accommodation (4 nights, single room in a hotel) as well as most meals are covered. Participants are expected to cover their own travel costs.

Applicants are asked to submit an abstract for a paper (max 400 words) and a short biography (including a list of publications) by e-mail to theo.hagman-rogowski@soclaw.lu.se no later than 31 March 2020.
